F.C.C. QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS REPORT

Quarter 1, 2006

(January 1-March 31, 2006)

ELEVEN ISSUES IDENTIFIED

1. COMMUNITY VALUES/DEVELOPMENT & MENTORS.

Home buyers face higher costs following period of buyers' market. The inverted yield curve of the bond market is blamed. Well-managed domestic stock mutual funds outdid the overall stock market, enjoying mid- to high single-digit returns.

2. CRIME/VIOLENCE, Including Law Enforcement and Protection

The murder of Teresa Halbach was the major criminal story. Steven Avery, a Manitowoc County man who previously was released from prison for a crime he did not commit, was charged with first-degree intentional homicide in the murder of Teresa Halbach.

3. EDUCATION

Howard-Suamico and DePere continued to prepare for increased school enrollment in Fall of 2007. New building proposals submitted to residents in Howard-Suamico & DePere.

The Catholic Diocese of Green Bay released a plan for reorganizing and consolidating Catholic Schools in the Green Bay which involves closing three schools.

Green Bay School Board continues to look for community input for school curriculum to improve the number of students who are proficient learners.

4. ENVIRONMENTAL CONCERNS

Hurricane Katrina's devastation demands many changes for citizens in New Orleans as well as communities offering aid and homes to victims. The Category 5 hurricane forced the largest urban relocation of citizen in U.S. history.

The massive earthquake near the Pakistan-India border killed more than 87,000 and left more than 3-million homeless. Relief officials appealed for more emergency aid in winter months.

5. FAMILIES, INCLUDING CHILDREN & TEENS

The Terri Schiavo family feud escalated into a emotional national debate in the U.S. as the husband of brain-damaged Terri Schiavo struggled and finally succeeded in getting clearance to remove the feeding tube which kept her alive for 15 years. Families locally and nationally voiced their opinions. President Bush, Florida Gov. Bush & members of Congress joined Terri Schiavo's parents in efforts to have the live-sustaining tube reinserted before she died.

Families revised their lifestyle and budgets following the layoff of 3,000 and cut of 468 employees at Georgia-Pacific, one of Brown County's largest employers.

6. GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS & ACCOUNTABILITY

Wisconsin faces a $1.6 billion deficit over the next two years.

President Bush gave a news conference to address the problems of the government, including the CIA leak, bringing U.S. military troops home, and responding to the devastation of Hurricane Katrina, and addressing increased oil pricing.

Crude oil prices continue to raise gas prices for everyone in the U.S. Families and individual motorists began measures to save fuel in their driving habits. Gas prices were dicey, inching up and then slowly coming back down.

Senator Tom Delay is indicted; and O'Connor steps down as Supreme Court Judge. John Bolton will replace her as Supreme Judge.

7. HEALTH CARE/ISSUES/NEWS & REFORM

The Asian Flu brings increased production of flu shots to all citizens within the U.S. All ages are urged to follow general health procedures as the cold and flu season are in full swing.

8. BUSINESS & NON-PROFIT GROUP CONCERNS

The Weidner Center announces restructuring or closing its doors, due to mismanagement of finances. The center will shift its emphasis to campus and community fine arts performances, speaker series and education programming. The facility will be offered for rental to groups wanting to bring in national entertainment acts.

Local retailer, Shopko Stores Inc., was sold to Sun Capital Partners of Boca Raton, FL company following lengthy & tumultuous negotiations this past year.

9. MINORITIES, ELDERLY, WOMEN CONCERNS/CIVIL RIGHTS ISSUES

RE: ARCHIVING PROCEDURE FOR DAILY NEWSCASTS RECORDED IN
"WEEKLY SUMMARY REPORTS" PLACED IN WLUK-TV'S FCC PUBLIC FILE, QUARTERLY PROGRAMS AND ISSUES REPORTS.

Throughout the day, video is edited for "on-air" presentation, and then is sent to a server in the Newsroom.

Each Newscast is titled on the server and the video used "on-air" is compiled onto an archive tape.

A log is created for each archive tape. This log includes information relating to the show, video title, and length of each piece.

The rundown for each newscast is opened and the following information is listed: archive tape number, length of video, format, (i.e. package, vo, vob, vosot), and a short description of segment content.

This procedure must be done daily and in a timely manner to insure that video is retained and available for future use.

It is my responsibility to archive all information, and print out a weekly log to be placed in the FCC Programs and Issues Report.

State of the State

January 17, 2006

MADISON, Wis. (AP) - Gov. Jim Doyle wants access to health care for every child in Wisconsin by next year, a new financial aid package for college students and state help for homeowners' heating bills.

Republican lawmakers want to know how he'll pay for it all.

Doyle, a Democrat, tried to set the stage for his re-election this fall with a host of new programs in his annual State of the State address, an initiative he dubbed his "affordability agenda."

While proposing a wide range of initiatives, he focused much of his attention on health care.

One proposal would make catastrophic health care coverage more affordable "because in Wisconsin, health care should be a birthright and not a ticket to bankruptcy," he said.

Doyle's administration estimated the new programs would cost $14.7 million in the current two-year budget that ends June 30, 2007. Doyle officials said money could be found within existing resources or by making new cuts in state spending.

The price tag will jump to an estimated $63.3 million in the next two-year budget, and Republicans questioned whether the state could afford it with limited resources.

"The governor in some respects tried to make a U-turn tonight and go back to the days of big government," said Assembly Speaker John Gard, R-Peshtigo.

Doyle opened his speech Tuesday night by ticking off a list of accomplishments over his first three years in office, from 140,000 more jobs to cuts in state spending and a series of tax breaks - some proposed by Republicans - that he has signed.

But health care was a central theme, and one of his most sweeping challenges to lawmakers was his call to ensure all Wisconsin children have health insurance coverage by next year.

His administration cited a survey that found 34,000 Wisconsin children 17 and younger were uninsured in 2004, about 3 percent of the total. That was up from 26,000 - 2 percent - the year before.

Doyle proposed merging BadgerCare, the state's health care program for the working poor, with other government programs that provide coverage for children and families. The new program, dubbed BadgerCare Plus, would cover 485,000 people.

Doyle's administration estimates the expanded coverage would not increase costs because the merger would streamline the programs and put more people in state programs into cheaper managed care. The savings could then be used to cover the expanded coverage.

The proposal would require a waiver from the federal government.

"They're really practical proposals that go to the heart of mitigating the effects of poverty on children," said Charity Eleson, executive director of the Wisconsin Council on Children and Families, which lobbies for programs to benefit kids.

Doyle also proposed cracking down on companies he said are shirking their responsibility to provide health care by pushing employees into state programs.

Doyle singled out Wal-Mart, which the state estimated last summer had 1,252 employees and their dependents enrolled in BadgerCare.

Doyle called for passage of legislation that would penalize employers $250,000 per incident for "dumping" their employees into state health care programs by making the coverage too expensive or dropping coverage outright for certain workers.

Wal-Mart spokesman Nate Hurst said more than three-fourths of the company's employees have health insurance with options beginning as cheap as $11 a month. The company has almost 27,900 employees in Wisconsin, and Hurst said it is doing its part to care for its employees.

Senate Majority Leader Dale Schultz, R-Richland Center, ripped Doyle for pinning health care problems on businesses.

"It seems to me we could get further by lifting up the wonderful examples other than, you know, cheap demagoguery," Schultz said.

The governor proposed a new catastrophic health care program for individuals, businesses and insurance companies to cover the highest-cost claims. Participants would be required to purchase insurance coverage up to a set amount on their own, with the program covering claims above that amount. Details have yet to be worked out, but participants would be charged a monthly fee to help cover the cost.

Doyle also called for an expansion statewide of a program that provides long-term, in-home care to low-income seniors and the disabled. The Family Care program is currently running in five counties, and Doyle said spreading the program would help people stay in their homes while providing a cheaper alternative for the state to housing them in nursing homes.

An independent study found the state saved $452 per person a month in a four-county area that participated in Family Care, compared to nursing home care. But the program recorded cost overruns of $12 million in Milwaukee County, partly because ineligible people were enrolled; the state says it has straightened out those problems.

Other initiatives included:

-A new financial aid package to help Wisconsin students afford college. Eighth-graders who sign a pledge and meet certain requirements would be eligible for state help at Wisconsin colleges. Doyle said he would seek private funding to help pay for the program, which would use a mixture of grants, subsidized loans and work-study jobs to cover tuition costs.

-$6 million to help people with rising heating costs. Doyle urged lawmakers to immediately pass a bill that would give 30,000 Wisconsin families an average of $200 in state heating bill assistance this year.

U.S. Rep. Mark Green of Green Bay and Milwaukee County Executive Scott Walker are both seeking the Republican nomination to take on Doyle this fall. Green said the speech was a welcome to "Doyle World" because he failed to say how he'd finance his plans, while Walker said he was disappointed the governor made little mention of reforms for state government.

Doyle re-emphasized previous reforms he has proposed for the state's election process, overhauling ethics laws and changing the campaign finance system. But Walker said he fell short, especially considering the governor's own fundraising practices are under investigation by local, state and federal prosecutors.

"Those would have been things to show the public he's serious about ethics reform," Walker said.

New This Year !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

For 2006 the WBA Board of Directors has approved the selling of extra tie periods in the 1st quarter January through March 12.

Please pay special attention in your scheduling of WBA NCSA spots during these time periods. There will be time periods when we are asking you to rotate spots from TWO clients at once

For example:

1. From January 2 through January 29, we ask you to play at least 15 spots for WisDOT WINTER DRIVING.
2. During this SAME TIME PERIOD, we ask you to play at least 6 spots for Amber Alert Week during the week of January 9 to January 16, and then
3. During that SAME TIME PERIOD, we ask you to play at least 8 spots for methamphetamine awareness for the Dept. of Justice, during the two weeks of January 16 to January 29;

Similarly,

1. From January 29 to February 24, we ask you to play at least 15 spots for the Waukesha School District's IQ Academies.
2. And we ask you to play at least 8 spots between February 27 and March 12, for Highway Safety promotion, AND
3. Covering parts of those SAME TIME PERIODS, we ask you to play at least 10 spots to promote awareness of internet crimes against children for the Dept. Of Justice during the three weeks between February 20 and March 12.

These are the ONLY times during the year when we have DOUBLE SCHEDULED FLIGHTS.

YOUR ATTENTION TO THESE DETAILS WILL HELP US REPLACE THE 4 WEEKS THE HAVE BEEN LEFT OPEN PRIOR TO THE FALL ELECTIONS!

Thanks for your attention to this change in format in 2006.

2006 WBA Non-Commercial Sustaining Announcement -Public Education Program

The 2006 WBA NCSA/PEP Program will run from January 2, 2006, through January 1, 2007. ALL time periods have been filled at this time, except for the 4 weeks preceding the November 7 General Elections.

PLEASE NOTE, because of the open period prior to the elections, THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS OK'd THE SALE OF ADDITIONAL SCHEDULES TO RUN CONCURRENTLY WITH OTHERS DURING THE FIRST QUARTER ONLY FOR THIS YEAR. BECAUSE OF THIS, WE WILL BE ASKING YOU TO PLAY DOUBLE SCHEDULES DURING SOME WEEKS IN JANUARY, FEBRUARY AND UP TO MARCH 12.

In all, 54 weeks are contracted (42 weeks with one schedule running and 6 weeks with 2 schedules running) including a minimum of 212 announcements per station. The 2006 schedule again includes several schedules which, at the sponsors request, have been split into 2 week blocks. To accommodate this we'll ask stations to play the 15 spots per month minimum requested (more if inventory allows) over the client's entire block of time. Traffic instructions will explain this and also include instructions to save tapes/CD's for later schedules.

This year's sponsors are all returning sponsors, including: the Wisconsin Dept. of Transportation, the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources, and the Wisconsin Department of Tourism, the Wisconsin Department of Justice, the U.S. Coast Guard, the Waukesha School District and Wisconsin Education Association Council.

As part of WBA's agreements with each of the above-mentioned agencies, stations will again be asked to sign a 2006 participation agreement (enclosed); and to provide affidavits of performance and reports of value --had they been purchased by a regular commercial advertiser -- of the announcements played. For TV stations, WBA will send out tapes and traffic instructions prior to the individual schedules. For Radio stations WBA will send out paper copy instructions to all stations, along with tapes for those that have requested to continue receive the spots this way AND we will have them posted as MP3 files on the WBA website for all Radio stations
